DETAILED ACTION

1. The indicated allowability of claims 35-65 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Risafi et al. (U.S. 6,437,500). Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow. Any inconvenience is regretted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 35-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Risafi et al. (U.S. 6,437,500).

Risafi et al. discloses a system and method for effecting for telephone services comprising:

- ◆ establishing an intermediary account having a corresponding account identifier (102, 104);
- ◆ associating the account identifier of the intermediary account with an end-user's prepaid account maintained by a telecommunication vendor and storing the association in a database coupled to a central payment processor, wherein the association includes information that allows the central payment processor to identify the end-user's prepaid account when presented with the account identifier (10, 100, 102, 104, 112, 110, 108, 106 of fig.1);
- ◆ facilitating a payment transaction between the end-user and a point-of sale, the payment transaction comprising receiving a payment from the end-user at the point-of-sale together with the account identifier for loading values into the end-user's prepaid account (fig.2, 5a, 6a, 6b, 7a, 7b, 8a, 8b);

◆ electronically communicating data indicative of the transaction data and transmitting a response to the point-of-sale (figs.9a);

◆ in the central payment processor, validating the transaction data and transmitting a response to the point-of-sale (figs.9b, 10a);

◆ in the central processor, if the validating step results in approval of the transaction, sending a message to the telecommunication vendor for loading value into the end-user's associated prepaid account responsive to the payment transaction (col.7, lines 19-55).

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeffrey Pwu whose telephone number is 703 308-7835.
